

The Rural Heritage Trust of Southwest Tennessee Cordially Invites You to Attend the Unveiling of Two Wayside Exhibit Panels for the Rosemark-Kerrville Rural Heritage Tour Route
Saturday, April 24, 2021

11:00 a.m.

Grounds of the Edmund Orgill Golf Course Clubhouse
9080 Bethuel Road
Millington, Tennessee 38053

RSVP by Replying to info@ruralheritagetrust.com

Free Parking on West Side of the Clubhouse

These Wayside Exhibit Panels Were Produced by the Rural Heritage Trust of Southwest Tennessee with Funding from the Shelby County Commission and Individual Contributors

For a Detailed Description of the Rosemark-Kerrville Rural Heritage Tour Route,
With Turn-by-Turn Instructions and Maps,
Visit www.ruralheritagetrust.com and Click on "Tours"

•

By accepting this invitation and attending this event, you and your guests acknowledge an inherent risk of exposure to COVID-19 in any public setting where people are present; voluntarily assume all risks related to exposure to COVID-19; and release the Rural Heritage Trust of Southwest Tennessee and its directors, officers, agents, contractors, and volunteers from liability for any illness or injury. It is imperative that anyone who chooses to attend this event take the necessary personal steps to stay safe (and keep others safe), including the mandated usage of masks/ facial coverings, social distancing, and all relevant safety protocol guidelines. If you develop symptoms of the virus (fever, cough, etc.) or learn you have been in contact with a COVID-positive person, please do not attend this event.